Brenda Leong – Chair of the BCSC,

WOW....what an email to wake up to!

Why don't you just respond to Mr. Harris? This has been going on for far too long and it is my humble opinion this could have ALL been avoided. The man has asked you hundreds of times for a 15 minute meeting and you have done nothing but ignore him.

Regarding my matter, I have sent you very polite emails asking very simple questions and you have not even bothered to answer my concerns – this has caused me to write letters to Mr. De Jong's office as well as Christy Clark. None of you people will take 15 minutes to get to the bottom of some of the terrible things that you (and your Staff) are being accused of at the BCSC. Why not? What are you all afraid of? I brought forward fairly alarming allegations of wrong-doing by your Staff and you will not even conduct some sort of an investigation? Either you know I have a case and you think ignoring me it will somehow magically disappear or you simply think you are too high and mighty to deal with the simple tasks requested of you. Either way, this looks very bad for someone that is paid the amount of money you are paid per annum. Your job comes with a lot of good things but there are times when you need to deal with less than good things –as is the case now.

Please do the right thing and email the parties that have sent you requests for answers. It's not just Mr. Harris's matter or mine for that matter – we know of many that are currently showing discontent with the BC regulator.

I really think you are the only one that is to blame for all of this. Do YOUR job – which is “to meet a public interest mandate to ensure market integrity and investor protection”. There is no integrity in not returning messages to people who demand answers from appointed government workers.

The blogs we are all writing are reaching people – I have had members of the press reach out to me and want to hear my side of the story regarding the allegations against your Staff I have brought forward. And we have all read the press release regarding the alleged wrongdoing of your Staff in a certain Chilean gold company. I am not going to debate the semantics of this case but I need to ask - Is any of this getting embarrassing for you? When you were brought in to the BCSC as its Chair, it was to combat the reputation of BC being known as the “Wild Wild West”. On your watch, it has now turned into this? Your Staff are being accused of committing crimes – significant crimes! I really don't think the Honorable Michael De Jong is going to appreciate emails like the one below because you won't take a phone call or email from Mr. Harris. One would think it would be bothering to him – and his political career. Again, does none of this bother you?

It is a shame to see things go this far on YOUR watch, Ms Leong! And you should be very ashamed of yourself. I submit you are the ONLY one that can change the direction the BCSC appears to be heading.

My two cents!

Regards,
Rod Wharram
